SURPRISE PARTY.

The young friends of Elmer Brundage gave him a very pleasant surprise party at the house of his parents south of Mesa Friday night.

RETURNED FROM ROOSEVELT.

W. A. McDonald returned from Roosevelt Saturday night where he had been with the oil contractors, who were arranging to handle the oil and will start to haul in a few weeks. He reports the work on the road progressing nicely and that the teams will soon be able to go through to the camp.

WELL DRILLING OUTFIT.

The well drilling outfit that has been boring at the McQueen ranch the past winter, passed through Mesa today en route to the Heard ranch west of Tempe.

Ready for Service

The careless spenders of Broadway pay more for long, comfortable, deep vented Sack Suits than you would dream of unrolling, but they don't show up any more "classy" than you can in our Spring and Summer Models (Stein-Bloch); There's been a lot of mystery wafted into crack clothes making; but it's as simple as the three R's: Master Tailors, Master Brains, Master Fabrics.
